Even though the Open Enrollment Period has ended, you may still be eligible to enroll in a health plan.

If you've had a major life-changing event, called a Qualifying Life Event (QLE), you could be eligible for our health plans.

Examples of qualifying life events include:

- Job loss or change
- Marital status change (divorce, legal separation, marriage, annulment, death of spouse)
- Becoming pregnant
- A family size change, such as birth or adoption
- Becoming ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus
- Expiration of COBRA
- Change of address
- And more

Even if you haven't had a qualifying life event, we also have health plans you may be eligible to enroll in anytime during the year.

Join Healthfirst and you'll also have convenient access to:

- Healthfirst Community Offices throughout New York City and on Long Island
- Help in seven languages

Let us help you find the health plan that fits your needs and budget.

Plans are offered by affiliates of Healthfirst, Inc. Plans contain exclusions and limitations.

Some copay, premium, and additional costs may apply, based on income and plan type

You must be enrolled in a Healthfirst Platinum, Gold, Silver, or Bronze Leaf Premier Plan. Telemedicine isn't a replacement for your Primary Care Provider (PCP). Your PCP should always be your first choice for care and for regular visits.
